Nascom Documentation Library – Nas-Sys 3

1. Introduction
2. Summary of Features
3. List of Commands
4. How to enter a command
5. Errors when entering a command
6. How to correct typing errors
7. Screen editing
8. The keyboard
9. The reset button
10. Scrolling display
11. Detailed Description of Commands
    - A - Arithmetic command
    - B - Breakpoint command
    - C - Copy command
    - D - Start execution at D000 hex, cold start for Zeap or NasDos
    - E - Execute command
    - G - Generate command
    - H - Half duplex terminal
    - I - Intelligent copy command
    - J - Jump command – starts execution at FFFA hex, cold start for ROM BASIC
    - K - Keyboard command
    - M - Modify command
    - N - Normal command
    - O - Output command
    - P - Display program registers
    - Q - Query command
    - R - Read command
    - S - Single step command
    - T - Tabulate command
    - U - User I/O command
    - V - Verify command
    - W - Write command
    - X - External command
    - Y - Y command – start execution at B000 hex
    - Z - Z command, start execution at FFFD hex – warm start for ROM BASIC
12. How to enter and test a program
13. Display of program registers
14. Simple instructions for input and output
15. How to end a program
16. Nas-Sys restarts and routines
17. Nas-Sys Restart Instructions
18. Nas-Sys routines

19. Input and Output
20. Nas-Sys Workspace
21. Addressing of Video RAM